VP Student Life, Council Report - October 29th:

Events:

Imaginus Poster Sale:
- Went great, always really popular with students.
- Only issues entailed student staff backing out last minute, but overall ran smoothly

Board Game Night:
- Was easy to plan and execute (0 cost associated)
- Had around 20-25 people

Halloween Pub:
- Sold ~450 tickets in advance
- Ordered pizza and had hydration station operated by club
- Dj Deks and Ron Romance
- Don't have final numbers yet

Clubs Cup:
- Pumpkin Carving
- Had 4-5 clubs out
- Lots of fun!

Planning:

Office Trick or Treat (October 31st):
- Happening from 11-1 in the executive offices!
- Free Candy!

Mental Health Monday:
- DIY time
- Free snacks
- More details to follow

Headphone Disco (November 15th):
- Getting contracts and riders ready
- Promotions have started
- Help get the word out!

Diversity Week (November 19th-23rd):
- Had first planning committee last week, thanks to those who came
- Schedule is being finalized, and will then fine tune ideas and events
- Another meeting within next two weeks

Other:
- Met with the GSA and will be partnering for some aspects of their Wine and Cheese night in November (event will be at Fox & Crow, SU will be offering a "Child Minding Centre" if needed, will sponsor door prizes)

- PEP-AH Regional conference in November will be attended by myself and Sweta Daboo

- Met with Anne and Keith from SA in regards to MHW 2019
    - Discussed different ideas as to how the SU can be involved
    - Left with more research to be done, searching for performers/entertainment for the week and/or other new ideas the SU can do
    - Going forward, we will have two seats on the planning committee (myself and Tessa Rogers) who will help in the overall planning and execution of the week

- Met with Sister Sue in regards to opening an SU food-bank in Mickey's Place Kiosk
    - More to come, later in the meeting

- Will be out of office from October 31st-November 6th for personal trip, any questions or issues that arrive may be emailed to me!
